

CAMPAIGN TO BE STARTED TO ADD TO MEMBERSHIP

Commercial Association Last Night Commissions Each Member to Act as Special Committee.

INCREASE OF 100 IS WANTED

Present Membership Is 188 Active Workers—High Compliments Are Paid to the Efficiency of the Association—Matter of Agriculture Is Discussed.

Every member of the Pendleton Commercial association was commissioned last evening a special committee on membership and, beginning the first of the year, a united effort will be made to increase the membership. At present, there are 188 active members upon the association roster and, in the opinion of the officers, there should be at least a hundred more.

J. E. Mullin, a recent comer to Pendleton, called the attention of the association to the necessity of going out after the new arrivals. Incidentally he paid the local association the tribute of being the liveliest club of its kind with which he has ever been associated.

The general discussion was caused by a suggestion by R. Alexander that it was possible for the association to get more out of its money than it now received. This statement he made without reflecting upon President Tallman, who, he said, had done more for the club than any other man who ever held the chair. His contention was that the president should not have to give so much attention to details, and he favored paying some young man for answering correspondence. The idea of a low-salaried secretary was opposed by George Hartman and others who contended that in the long run the high-salaried man was the cheaper. Dr. I. V. Temple also paid a warm compliment to the efficiency of the Commercial organization.

One new member, L. A. Reinepman, county water master, was voted in last evening. Report was made that the junior commercial association had been organized and would soon begin its activities.

The matter of a county agriculturalist was discussed briefly but no action taken. E. E. Cleaver championed the suggestion of a county agriculturalist in this county, declaring that high breeding of wheat has caused the percentage of gluten to run down to so low a point that the local grower would find his wheat marked down. He based his assertion on statements of millers, he said.

An expression of thanks from the Horse & Mule Breeders' association for aid given at the last show was read and the association promised moral and financial aid for the 1916 show.

Minnesota is Being Towed Into Port in Crippled Condition

BOILERS ARE OUT OF COMMISSION—HOW ACCIDENT HAPPENED NOT KNOWN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—With boilers crippled, perhaps by spins of minnie, the food-laden Hill freighter Minnesota, which recently cleared for Seattle for England, is being towed in today by two tugs, replying to a wireless request for more tugs to be sent. Officials profess they have been unable to get information of the ship's condition or the cause of it being disabled.

The Merchants' Exchange marine department said it received a message reporting the tugs laque and Dauntless are now making three knots an hour. Their positions are 200 miles south of San Diego. A heavy northwest swell is running despite clear weather. All the Minnesota's engines are dead. The belief here is general that they have been tampered with.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—That the coast guard cutter McCulloch started to the aid of the crippled Minnesota, off lower California, but returned to San Diego when the Minnesota advised that it was not needed, became known at coast guard headquarters.

SEVERAL VERSIONS RECEIVED OF FATE OF THE COMMUNIPAW

ONE REPORT SAYS VESSEL SAFE IN PORT—ANOTHER SHE HAS BEEN SUNK.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Ambassador Page at Rome cabled that the Communipaw had been captured and conveyed to an unknown port. The nationality of the captor was not stated.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Standard Oil company has received a cable from its agent at Alexandria stating the tank ship Communipaw, recently reported sunk by a submarine, arrived safely at Alexandria Sunday. It was admitted there was a possibility the Communipaw might have left Alexandria later and been attacked.

The Communipaw carried a crew of 39. Shipping circles generally believe she was either attacked and escaped, or a vessel similar in name had been attacked. The Standard Oil company first heard that a ship named the Columbia had been attacked. It was pointed out the Communipaw might have been attacked, then escaped, as the Petrolite did after sending a wireless she was being pursued. Rescuers, after vainly searching, naturally would report her sunk, it was pointed out.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Ambassador Page at Rome cabled that a vessel believed to be the Communipaw had been torpedoed and sunk. The scene or other details were not mentioned. The state department announced the consul in the Mediterranean region was expected to report soon.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The News Agency published an "official" dispatch that the Communipaw arrived at Alexandria on Monday.

PLANS ARE BEGUN TO HAVE A COFFEE CLUB HERE DURING WINTER

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES APPOINT COMMITTEE TO TAKE INITIAL STEPS.

An actual beginning upon the campaign for a winter community house or coffee club was made last evening when the Associated Charities appointed a committee to meet with other organizations of the city and devise some means of opening a wholesome substitute for the banished saloon.

The Associated Charities also decided to name a "Bundle Day" some time before Christmas upon which citizens might contribute some bundle that would prove useful among the poor. A committee was appointed to arrange for this day.

A financial campaign will be undertaken at once to secure funds for helping the Associated Charities in its work among the poor during the winter. While securing subscriptions of cash the committee will also try to increase the membership of the organization.

St. Louis Will be Meeting Place of Democrats in 1916

CITY CHOSEN ON SECOND BALLOT FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION IN JUNE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The democratic national convention of 1916 will be held at St. Louis, beginning Wednesday, June 14, at noon. The democratic national committee named the convention and adopted resolutions calling for the renomination and re-election of Woodrow Wilson as "the trusted leader of national democracy."

Chicago and Dallas contested with St. Louis for the honor of the convention, but St. Louis easily led from the start and won on the second ballot. When the trend of the voting was seen Texas moved that the choice of St. Louis be made unanimous. Dallas held second place on the first ballot, but was displaced by Chicago on the second roll call.

St. Louis Increases Vote.
The result of the first ballot was: St. Louis 25, Dallas 14, Chicago 14. On the second ballot the vote was: St. Louis 28, Chicago 15, and Dallas 9. The majority for St. Louis was gained on this ballot, when John T. McGraw arose near the end of the roll call and changed West Virginia's vote from Chicago to the Missouri city. Then the choice was made unanimous.

It has been customary heretofore for national conventions to begin work on Tuesday. The fact that Tuesday fell on the 13th next year may or may not have had something to do with the determination of the committee to begin the proceedings a day later.

Short Convention Foreseen.
The official explanation, however, was to the effect that the convention would not require more than three or four days to complete its work, and it would not be too late in the week to start on Wednesday.

Political leaders in Washington regarded it as practically certain that Chicago will be selected for the republican convention when the national committee of the party meets next Tuesday. The date for this convention probably will be late in June.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Chairman McCombs of the democratic national committee announced a special convention will assemble here December 29 to make arrangements for the national convention at St. Louis June 14. The president was host at a luncheon to the committee at the White House today.

DEMURRER OF COMPANY IS UPHELD IN DAMAGE SUIT

COMPLAINT IS HELD INSUFFICIENT BY CIRCUIT JUDGE PHELPS.

Holding that the complaint filed by L. B. Ashbaugh, administrator of the estate of Alice L. Ashbaugh who was killed at Echo by an O-W. R. & N. train, against the railroad company was insufficient for a cause of action, Judge Phelps this morning sustained the demurrer of the railroad company.

Mrs. Ashbaugh was killed trying to crawl under a train that blocked the street of Echo. The complaint did not charge that any of the employees of the company saw her make the attempt and, hence, Judge Phelps holds in his opinion the doctrine of last clear chance cannot be applicable. Furthermore, he holds that a person in possession of their full senses who will deliberately take a perilous chance by crawling under a train and who could have avoided injury by the exercise of proper care is not entitled to recover, citing an Idaho supreme court decision and other decisions in support of his ruling.

"The court is of the opinion," he says, "that the plaintiff must under the facts of this case allege that the trainmen or at least some of them saw the deceased in her attempt to climb through the train and could have avoided the injury by the application of due diligence under the circumstances."

Buenos Aires, at the present rate of increase, will pass Chicago in 1930 and be the second city of the hemisphere.

Mrs. Anna Shea is Called by Death; Illness is Brief

WELL KNOWN WOMAN DIES AT HOSPITAL FROM PLEURAL PNEUMONIA.

Mrs. Anna Shea died here at 2 a. m. today at St. Anthony's hospital from the effects of pleural pneumonia. The end though sudden was not entirely unexpected, as her condition had been critical for some time and her children had been summoned. The funeral is to be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from St. Mary's Catholic church.

Mrs. Shea was born in New York September 17, 1865. She came to Pendleton 15 years ago and her husband, David Shea, died in that year. NATION IS AT HIGH POINT OF FINANCIAL POWER SAYS M'ADOO

RESOURCES ARE GREATEST IN OUR HISTORY, HE DECLARES IN REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—A sweeping declaration of American financial stability was made by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo in his annual report to congress today. "Our financial resources are the greatest in our history and our banking system, through the operation of the federal reserve system is the strongest in the world," he said. Commenting on business conditions the secretary declared one of the most encouraging features was that the demand for iron and steel products is heavier from domestic than from foreign sources.

Among recommendations made is one that persons having a gross income of $3000 or more a year shall pay an income tax. The law at present provides for net incomes of that amount, leaving it to the individual to determine whether his net income is $3000 or more. The report does not mention other income tax law changes suggested by the secretary in a recent statement.

Indicating the fight to be made on the so-called pork measure, the omnibus public buildings bill, the secretary advances arguments for its discontinuance. He cites bad public building conditions in many cities.

He supports the idea of government treatment of drug addicts by the public health service or other government agency, and suggests that the Harrison anti-narcotic act be made more stringent.

Concerning the public health service, the secretary urges upon congress the necessity for more commissioned medical officers and larger public health field investigation. He points out that the United States is the only country which does not provide for the isolation and care of lepers. There are approximately 146 lepers in the U. S., he states, and congress is urged to pass a bill introduced at the last congress, for a national leprosy hospital.

Plans are being worked out by the coast guard and navy, the secretary says, to make the former organization a valuable auxiliary to the navy in time of war.

The secretary also calls attention to the saving effected by the treasury's innovation of shipping money by parcel post rather than express. He recommends increasing the salaries of assistant secretaries from $5000 to $7500. The present salary, the secretary points, makes it necessary for men of the caliber desired to sacrifice themselves financially to hold the position.

CHILDREN TO BE SURPRISED THIS YEAR WITH TREE

Plan Suggested by Rev. Snyder and Dr. Vincent is Endorsed Last Evening by Commercial Club.

TO BE MUNICIPAL AFFAIR

Big Tree Will Be Set Up at Main and Court Streets and Gaily Decorated With Colored Lights—Santa Claus Will Distribute Gifts of Candy to Little Ones.

A municipal Christmas tree, aglow with colored lights and burdened with candy, will bring delight to the hearts of Pendleton children on Christmas eve.

The plan, first started by Rev. J. E. Snyder and Dr. F. W. Vincent, was endorsed last evening by the Commercial association and a committee was named by President Tallman to assist in the preparation for this novel celebration of the Yuletide.

The plan is to set up a tall evergreen tree at the intersection of Main and Court streets. Strings of lights will be suspended between the tree and the four corner poles and myriads of tiny colored lights will be sprinkled among the branches. Dr. Vincent, who is manager of the Pacific Power & Light Co., has volunteered to contribute the lights without cost.

On the tree will be hung hundreds of bags of candy and a Santa Claus will distribute the gifts among the children. There will be plenty for every child in the city.

This will, however, not be all of the municipal observance. A big float, drawn by six horses and occupied by forty children, will drive through the streets and the children will sing Christmas carols. They are already rehearsing their songs under the direction of Miss Eleanor Vincent and Eugene Molitor.

Waterways Should be Developed Says Secretary Redfield

GET RID OF THE "PORK BARREL" IDEA HE DECLARES AT CONVENTION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The nation's waterways must be developed, Secretary of Commerce Redfield told the national rivers and harbors convention. He expressed the fear the coming commercial development will swamp the railroads and therefore urged the development of the waterways. He advised a disassociation of the "pork barrel" idea from the movement. He said "pork" was much exaggerated.
